

Letter of English Language Proficiency Editing and Translation-finishing

Rob Garrett, MFA, BFA

Rob Garrett is a New Zealand-born native English speaker, teacher, published writer and editor. He is highly proficient in both written and spoken English and has experience in editing documents translated from Polish to English. He lives in Poland and works internationally.

Rob Garrett's English proficiency and advanced language skills have been developed and proven across a wide range of qualifications and activities, including:

- Bachelor of Fine Arts degree (1977), University of Auckland, New Zealand
- Teaching Diploma (1977), Auckland College of Education
- Teaching Certification (1979), New Zealand Ministry of Education
- Master of Art History degree with Distinction (1986), University of Otago, New Zealand
- 16 years' teaching practice at High School and Elementary School
- 14 years' lecturing and course-development experience at tertiary level, as Head of the Art History Department and later, Rector of New Zealand's oldest Art Academy, Dunedin School of Art, Dunedin
- Master's degree supervisor (supervising dissertations) and examiner
- Guest lecturer at numerous universities in New Zealand, Australia and Poland
- Published writer and editor since 1992 in academic journals, international journals and magazines, books, international exhibition catalogues and newspapers
- 40 years' experience as a public speaker (in English)

Personal website

Contact details:

garrett.rob@gmail.com

+48 660 580 088

January 22, 2018