To the Authors and Readers of Folia Histochemica et Cytobiologica:

Dear Colleagues,

I want to share with you a very good news: the impact factor (IF) of Folia Histochemica et Cytobiologica increased from the 2015 value of 1.040 to its current value of 1.389. Moreover, it may be predicted that in the next year the IF of our journal will further increase.

I want to take this opportunity to thank all of our contributors — including our authors, reviewers, and editors — for their outstanding efforts on the journal's behalf. For myself, I will continue to pursue quality in whatever form it takes in my effort to increase the scientific value of the journal's content.

With my best wishes,

Zbigniew Kmiec, MD, PhD
